CONSTRUCTIVE THINKING™

*W*e believe that providing safe and structured programming afterschool helps children develop the tools they need to be successful.

To honor our clients and friends this holiday season SpawMaxwell made a contribution to Heart House Austin, a free afterschool program dedicated to providing a safe haven and academic support to low-income children and encouraging them to become good citizens.

Together we can make a difference. Visit Heart House Austin online at www.hearthouse.org to learn more.

Heart House

*After School,
Before Home*

A donation from SpawMaxwell helps support afterschool activities at Heart House Austin.

At Heart House, children have access to caring adult mentors, homework assistance, art enrichment, computer learning, health and safety education, and literacy programs. www.hearthouse.org
